SUBJECT Guerrilla Activities, Hunan

25X1A

1. In late August a military convoy of approximately 200 vehicles traveling from Kueiyang to Changsha was protected by an infantry regiment, which often marched ahead of the convoy to clear the road of guerrilla forces. It took twenty days to make the trip from Kueiyang to Changsha.
2. On 6 September guerrilla troops under LIU Fu-yu killed LIU Chung, director of the Wukaishan (113-03, 25-40) and Yaoling Land Commission; CH'EN Chia-tsen, director of the Farmer's Association; and CH'EN Chia-tsen, director of the government in the region of Tungmaoyu village.
3. On 8 September 600 guerrillas under CHING Chen-shun raided a garrison of the 405 Regiment, 135 Division at the Lian Kiao bus station and destroyed the bridge there.
4. Communist officials in Meitienhu and Kungtan, Huayung Hsien, Hunan requested from the people a summer grain levy amounting to 70 percent of the yield. Local guerrillas induced the people to resist the levy, and attacked the two villages on 14 September with over 2,000 men. During the attack they killed FAN Tsung-li, head of the government in the Meitienhu region, YU Kuan-san, head of the summer grain levy team, and 8 Communist soldiers, and captured 6 rifles, 14 hand grenades, and 400 rounds of ammunition. The government of Kungtan was forewarned, and the officials and their guards retreated in six wooden boats to Tungting lake an hour before the attack occurred.
